City Treasure and Tax Collector William B. Palmor, of Bath, says that this is one of, if not the hardest year he ever knew in Bath for tax-payers. He told the Enterprise that one year under ex-Mayor Twitchell the fox rate was 20% wills, or one-half mill bigher than the present year, but the commitment was about the same. $101,000 were paid under the first discount, against shout $98,000 this year, but that the latter part of the payments are harder by over a half than they were then. He is doing all that he can to make the collections but business is so dull that man who usually pay promptly are running behind.

The Indemnities Growing Out of Ford's Theatre Disaster. The Case of George M. Hanson

Again Laid Over.

Washington, Feb. 14. Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, a member of the select committee of the Ford's Theatre disaster, will today report to the Senate on the chains of the legal heirs of the cierks who were killed in that disaster. There are twenty-five clases of deaths which the conjunitee has decided to grant an allowance of $5,000 ench. One other death claim is held up for further investigation. The clerk died several months after the accident and the testimony of some witnesses was to the effect that he had gotten plaster in his lungary while plaioned in the debris, which eventually caused death from lung trouble.

eventually caused death from lung trouble

Other information secured by the committee showed that the clerk was a consumptive before the disaster. The claims of all the injured will not be adjusted this edesion on account of a mass of testimony to be secured and the members of the committees prevented them during the short session giving their undivided time to the matter.

Mr Hopkins of Blinos of the Ways and Means Committee, said to night about the contract for for againgula-The publication of this contract is due to no way to the Ways and Means Committee We were all enjoined by Mr Carlisle to absolute secrety in the matter But there was a tremendou feeling in the House against such secrecy We all felr that the American pople were being mortgaged to the extent of $60,000,000, and that they were in titled to know the details of the trunsac tion Mr Wilson therefore when he heard of the resolution of inquiry introduced by Senttor Aldrich in the Senate went to Mr Carlisle and Insisted on the publication of the contract. The Secretary then appended the contract to his report with no reference to the Ways and Means Committee 'I do not suppose that any self re specting Republican will indors this bond lesue It was conceived in iniquity and is an inquitous measure. Mr. Cleve land is clamoring for a gold bond, say ing that such an issue will save the Gov ernment $17,000,000 But such a ruse deceives and builles nobody. An issue of that kird is a direct reflection on the Government of the United States, and while it may save the President $16,000, 000, it will cost the American people hundreds of millions in injured credit. "In the committee, I compelled the secretary of the Treasury to admit that he was selling bonds at 104, which were selling in London at 112). He said it was a hard bargain, but that it was also the best he could do But did you ever know a criminal who did not say in defence of his crime that he had to do it? We, the richest country in the world, are paying a higer rate of interest than prehistoric bankrupt Egypt on our bond issue. But Congress can do nothing to prevent it. The Secretary said this orning that some of the gold had already been paid in."

The Contest in Tennessee. The Philadelphia Press says: The action of H. Clay Evans, last week, in taking the oath of office of Governor of Tenuessee, to which the face of the returns show that he was elected, was undoubtedly done to keep good his claim no matter what the outcome of the investigation may be. As the Secretary of State refused to place his oath of office on file, Mr, Evans asked the courts to order that this shall be done and that he should be recognized as Governor This brings the matter into the courts, where it can be carried from court to court until it reaches the United States Su preme Court

But meanwhile the Republicans are showing that if there is anything in the ry of fraud raised by the Democrats it is more favorable to the Republicans than to the Democrats - The Democrats' claim was that a large number of Republicans had voted without paying their poil tax, and that this vitlated the entire vote at every poli where practiced and that an investigation would author ive] the throwing out of enough such votes to overcome the Republican plurality and show the election of the In morratic candidate for Covernor The energetic action of the Republicans is ferreting out Democratic frauds must, however, be disconcirting to the Demo cratic conspirators. The ballots in about half the councies in the State have been of ened, the Republicans having objected to the counting of forty countles and the Democrats to twenty nine countles, and both pirties have objected to five coun-I wenty two countries were not ob

Senate

Washington, Feb. 14 In the morning bour Mr. Platt (Rep., Conn.) said he had a potition to present of sufficient importance to justify him in asking the attention of the Senate. It was from persons, citizens of the Choctaw nation, living under the American flag, who represented that they were now on trial in the courts of the Choctaw nation on a false charge of murder—homicide growing out of political feud. They implore the government of the United States that the constitutional right of fair trial be setured them as provided by the Choctaw treaty and that the right of appeal be provided to the United States court where the judge is free from ignorance and prejudice. He asked that the potition be referred to the Juddenry Committee.

NEW YORK CITY CONTRASTS.

The Busiest Quarturs In the Daytime Ars the Loneliest at Night, It is hy very force of contrast that the quietest places in New York at night are those which are noisiest by day-to wit, the great shipping and warehouse quarters. From the foot of Forty-second street, on the east, clear around the island to the New York Central railroad slips at the foot of Sixtieth street, on the west, there are during the day the rush of traffic, the clatter of buggies, the rumble of trucks, the classic apos trophes of the truckmen, the build ing up and demolition of pyramids of merchandise on the wharves and the quick moving streams of men loading and unloading craft from here, there and everywhere

But at night all this great helt of activity is quiet and deserted save in an occasional spot where there is an extra rush on some piece of work The streets are filled with empty trucks and carts There is the erratio glimmer of lanterns and the faint sound of horses feeding in unsuspect ed stables The shadowy figures of watchmon move slowly about, the ship lanterns rise and fall with the tide, and square patches of light mark the ships' companionways and the scuttle holes of the canalboats Across the street the restaurants and saloons are open and sometimes noisy, but along the waterside it is as quiet as the river itself The contrast is even greater in the great business blocks along Green wich street on the one side and those

the city where the products of the world are not only dealt in, but actu ally handled, where offices are giling and the warehouses bursting with riches During the daylight hours there is no ecase to the movement here—not the movement of people but the movement of goods. It is not the prestissing movement either that one sees over on the great ther oughfares of travel, but the open large movement of cargoes on wheels drawn by ponderous beasts of bur den It is the extent, not the rapid ity, of the business that is bewilder ing It is as though all the world had turned merchant and was trad ing here. And then, when the dusk comes on, a strange lonelmess comes down on everything The roaring trucks go off and their absence alone changes the whole character of the locality Great non-doors are banged to, specks of light show where the shipping clerks are laying out then plans for next morning's first job, the narrow street ake on unaccus tomed aus of quiet and are seen to be even narrower and dirtier than they were thought to be when filled from house to house with moving loads of clean packages, and when the last clerk locks the door and semries away to the lighted and lively

As regards the linguities spoken in Palestino in the time of Christ, much that is of high importance lie resulted from a cont exploration. A dedication to Recoil was written both in Aramaic and in Cacek, and there are a great many three texts of the ago in all parts of the country which show us that the old Canaunite ich gions had not yet died out, but were mingled with tacck mythology, do that the names of native and di Greek deities stand side by side. The region where the Greeks were most numerous was apparently Decap diseast of the sea of Galake and it seems to me probable that the prople di Gadaan, who kept swine were Greeks, for the pig was regarded as an unclean animal by the Phoenici ins and other natives as well as by the Jews, It has often been disputed whether the gosix is were originally written in Greek or in Aram in but it has now been rendered critim by exploration that tricek was very widoly used in Palestino at this time and that it was understood by the Jows as well as by others. MEDICAL KINETOSCOPES ocent Uses of the Invention In the Study of Disease.

The invention of the kinetoscope, which is attracting a large amount of popular interest, resembles some of Mr Edison's other inventions in being really an improvement on or an adaptation of discoveries of other men This in no way implies that the fame of the American inventor is undescrived. On the contrary, it is due to his genius that more experiments of scientists have been con verted into things of real and lasting benefit to civilization Sir Humphry Davy discovered that earbon could be rendered incandescent in a cur rent of electricity, and that o yien consumed the carbon, but it remain ed for Edison to exclude the exygen and to give the electric light to civili The main essentials of the phonograph were in use Lefore Edi son conceived the idea of making a practical use of the machine The Muybridge photographs were the

forcumers of the kinetoscope

It has been proclaimed that the time is now at hand when books and theaters will become rarities, and the average citizen will be content to use the phonograph and the kinetoscope for his pleasure. Such a prodiction is oversanguine as yet for the reason that these inventions are not yet perfect. The beauty of concerted music or of rare singing is still marred by the electric whir and the false sounds that issue from the phonograph's diaphragm. The splen did color and dazzling luster of the abutting on Water street on the East river, those wonderful sections of opera's stago are as yet beyond the grasp of the kinotoscope Perhaps those things may come some diy, but they have not come yet, and in the meantime the present generation 19 concerned chiefly with the things of today. The telephone, for in stance, is of more immediate use to civilization thin are the phonograph and kinetoscope combined Science has already found certain uses for Mr Edison's later myen tions, however. The phonograph counterfeits permanently many sounds that are useful to the queue ties-the normal and insound he if t beats, 'rales" in the lungs perfain and administration of the company of the contract of the contr onditions of the throit or torsils It is of decided benefit to science to have permanent records that can alwas a bo of easy access without accounse to a special putient. In the same way the kinetoscope promises to be of great attlify to medical science by reproducing physical action that can be studied in detail or commences welv as the student desires. In this city some effort in that direction has already been under taken and more will be developed from time to time, especially in nervous disorders that bring on a cut in physical action that as often so vio lent and vigorous as to baffle any attempt at close study by means of the The Muybudge photographs show
